

British Transport Police, Baches Street, London N1

Project Description

- Stripping out existing fire damaged materials
 - Staircase refurbishment
 - New ceilings
 - Floor coverings
 - New air conditioning
 - Partitions
 - Blinds
 - Electrical alterations
 - Decorations
- Specialist Lab Equipment
- Security installation

The works consisted of the reinstatement of BTP's laboratory as a result of extensive fire damage. As the main location for forensic testing security was a prime consideration and the works were carried out with careful monitoring by BTP.

Duration 10 weeks

Value £404,000

Architect Ridge

CA Ridge

M&E Ridge

CAMERON BLACK